LOCAL BRIEFS.

Five Hundred Applicants—Nearly 500 additional applications were made yesterday for admission to the High school.

Bernard Shaw's Teachings—Rev. W. L. Brown will lecture on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 13, at the Church of the Good Samaritan, on the subject of "The Teachings of Bernard Shaw."

Sheep Dipping Begins—The sheep dipping season began on the 1st inst., and continues until Nov. 1, under the joint supervision of the state and government. Rams may be dipped until Dec. 15. At the sheep dipping station of the state sheep commission, it was reported that the sheep of the state were in good condition.

Telegram Arrows Fear—Mrs. Kate Mulhern of this city is in a precarious state of uncertainty. A telegram received yesterday, informing her that James J. Mulhern had been burned to death in a fire at Grand Forks, Ind. Mrs. Mulhern's husband's name is John H. Mulhern, but the similarity in the names and the fact that he was in that part of Idaho at the time of the fire makes her fear for the worst.

Struck by Street Car—Mrs. Elizabeth Hodgson, 37 years, was struck down by Sugar House car No. 414 last evening at Seventh and Third East streets, and sustained a fracture of the left leg and several severe bruises. Mrs. Hodgson had endeavored to cross the street in front of the car when it was struck. The injured woman was removed to the home of her daughter at 1127 Pacific street, where she was attended by Dr. Joseph H. Robinson.

Hog Cholera Found—State Veterinarian A. C. Young found three hogs infected with cholera yesterday on the farm of A. N. Stephens at Birch Creek. The hogs were killed and burned, the pens destroyed, and the ground there plowed up. Dr. Young says there is no need of alarm among the sheep near Provo, as he reported, though some of the animals are suffering from hoof-rot. Some 500 sheep near Heber were discovered in trouble, but have been quarantined and most of them will be killed.

Wool Men Assessed—The Utah Wool Growers' association, an organization antedating the present association, met yesterday afternoon to provide for raising means to defray the judgment held against it by attorneys for services, amounting to $7,000. It was decided to levy assessments based on the indebtedness of members on account of delinquent dues and assessments. The owners of the judgment secured in 1905 are James H. Moyle, Brown & Henderson, Lindsay H. Rogers, and Street & Rogers.

Betts Wins His Case—John E. Betts of 1901 South Eleventh East street proved himself to be as good a cross-examiner as he is a fisherman, and won his own case after an all day trial before a jury in Justice of the Peace Stanley A. Hanks' court yesterday. Mr. Betts was charged with having fished in the Jordan River Sunday, Aug. 8, without the proper license. In defending himself he got Deputy Warden Sam Wright so badly tangled up that even Asst. County Atty. Bowman could not straighten the latter out, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

ENDORSE SANITARIUM PLAN.
Real Estate Association Adopts Resolution at Yesterday's Session.

The plan of local capitalists to build a large hotel and sanitarium at Polson Point, North Salt Lake, was endorsed by the Salt Lake Real Estate association at its regular semi-monthly meeting at the Commercial club yesterday afternoon. A resolution to this effect was introduced by George M. Cannon and unanimously adopted. In addition to business of routine nature was decided to purchase 10,000 maps of Salt Lake City for distribution among inquirers. Those present at the meeting were George M. Cannon, W. G. Tuttle, F. Morningstar, William R. Jones, Jr., E. H. Hill, J. P. Mahan, E. Lutterworth, T. H. Cartwright, C. H. Cartwright, J. L. Perkins, A. H. Parsons and J. A. Hurt.

Following is the resolution: Whereas, We are informed that an enterprise is well under way to erect a hotel, sanitarium and health resort at the mineral springs at Polson Point in North Salt Lake; be it resolved, That we heartily endorse this enterprise as one of great benefit to the community, as well as to the world at large, scientific investigations having shown that the salt and sulphur waters of this vicinity are the equal, if not the superior, for medical purposes of any in the world.

We commend this undertaking as one which will establish another Hot Springs, Arkansas, in the city, resulting not only in material benefit to the city, but also working great good to humanity.

Prompt Returns on News Advertising

Several companies in Idaho who are advertising land openings have lately placed advertising in Salt Lake papers, using the largest amount of space in the Daily and Semi-Weekly News. Under date of September 4th, Mr. C. B. Adams, Publicity Agent of Clinton-Hurt & Co., who have in charge the big Lost River project, writes as follows from Boise:

"We are receiving over a thousand inquiries per day, a gratifying number of which refer to our advertising in your paper."
